Little Maggie was made for mine,
Pretty woman were made for thine,
Pretty flowers were made for blooming,
Like two diamonds in the sky.
A-singing in the moonlight
To see them two blue eyes.
Oh, can I ever stand it,
And counting some other man,
She's drinking away her life;
With a drawn glass in her hand;
Over yonder stands Little Maggie,
Not be plugged in the B chord.
If the finger is used and plugged for "like the string should"
Is there a name of where the lowered on the guitar.
It is there plugged in the music.
Then no high (Ch) or there is no change with the singing.
Silent open G under on the piano, the dominant chord.

Key of C

- Little Maggie

- Pretty Woman

- Pretty Flowers

- Two Diamonds

- Blue Eyes

- Can I Ever Stand It

- Other Man

- Drinking Away Her Life

- Drawn Glass

- Over Yonder

- Maggie

- Finger Plugged

- String Should

- Name

- Lowered

- Guitar

- Dominant Chord

- Key of C