Sing me the Blues

Sarah Harris
April 2008

Sing me the blues like the lady used to do said her soul for a song and sang her heart away and the bass it played

I promise to stay by your side just play me a tune I can keep safe within my own heart and the drums they played and the couples swung

Sing sing sing sing sing sing sing sing

Sing on your sorrow I swear by tomorrow I'll be red green gray and may be my baby tonight you can let me be blue sing me the
