

Dressing Up

David Maffler
Chgo/Pgh, Oct/Nov 2007

1.

You need a disguise on Hal - low - een, a cos - tume no - bod - y's ev - er seen, a fur - key has no ap - par - ent form, it's most - ly not - ed for be - ing warm. No

2.

mas - querade to fool the keen - est guess - er; here are dis - guis - es that are win - ners, as yes sir!
 per - son - al - i - ty, no gist is pres - ent, kind of like sheet rock, on - ly not as pleas - ant.

3.

Wear some wheels: you're a Toy - o - ta. Nev - er smile: you be - Joe Tor - re. Trim your hair, Tile your skin: you're ter - ra cot - ta. Drag a car: you be - a tow truck. San - dal up, you to - pi - ar - y. Get real quirk - y, but you bet your dough there is no cos - tume for to - fur - key. To - get Stock - en Birk - y. Get real quirk - y, but you bet your dough there is no cos - tume for to - fur - key.

(1.)