

New York Summer

round in four parts

1 The sum - mer came the New York su - mer which is like no sum - mer an - y - where.

2 The heat and the rain be - gan. the de - struc - tion of nerves and san - i - ty and pri - vate lives and love af - fairs.

3 The air was full of base - ball scores and bad news and trea - cly songs.

4 The streets and the bars were full of hos - tile peo - ple made more hos - tile by the heat.

opt. oscillating fan unpredictably clicking as it sticks to one side or the other etc...

Chris Peck, May 2010, West Hartford, Vermont
 revised on a sticky June day in Brooklyn NY ninety out and summer still two weeks away

Text: James Baldwin (Another Country Book 2 Chapter 4)