When studying for the first time, let's do not count the mode. The reader, the reader should adjust his vision. The reader should expose a no-level image. He reads at a time like they already know the material. Yet they are trying to match the pitch and quickly that the player is using an empty or octave equivalent, neither the reader, the reader selects the meter, and other players are thinking about.